

2013 Summer Lecture Series

Location — All lectures will be held in the Nisqually National Wildlife Refuge Visitor Center. Take I-5 exit 114 and follow signs to the Refuge.

Time — The lectures start at 7pm and will last approximately 1 hour followed by questions. Doors open at 6pm.

Limited Seating — The Visitor Center auditorium seats 100 people. Attendance is limited to seats available. Seating will be issued starting at 6pm on a first come basis and you must be present. If there are not seats available when you arrive, you will not be able to attend the lecture. However, the Refuge trails are open until sunset.

Parking — Parking is available in the visitor parking lot.

Entrance Fee — The Refuge entrance fee is waived for those attending the lectures. All lectures are free.

Special Accommodations — Persons with disabilities who require accommodations should contact the Refuge at (360) 753-9467.

Nisqually National Wildlife Refuge
(360) 753-9467
fws.gov/refuge/nisqually

Friends of Nisqually
National Wildlife Refuge
100 Brown Farm Road
Olympia, WA 98516

Nisqually National Wildlife Refuge

26th Annual

Summer Lecture Series

2013

“Our Wonderful Watery World”

2013 Summer Lecture Series

"Our Wonderful Watery World"

July 10

"Marine Wildlife of Puget Sound: the Amazing Fish and Invertebrates in our Backyard"

David Jennings
Local Scuba Diver

July 17

"Elk and Deer: What Wondrous Species"

Michelle Tirhi
District Biologist for
Thurston and Pierce Counties
Wash. Department of Fish and Wildlife

July 24

"The Giant Pacific Octopus"

Kathryn Kegel
Aquarium Biologist
Seattle Aquarium

July 31

"The Warming Ocean's Role in Climate"

Greg Johnson
Oceanographer
National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration

August 7

"Ice Worms: What They Tell Us About Glaciation"

Peter Wimberger
Professor and Director of the Slater Museum of Natural History
University of Puget Sound

August 14

"Mountain Fever: Stories of the First Ascents on Mt. Rainier"

Jim Ross
Outreach Specialist, Naturalist
Mt. Rainier National Park

August 21

"The Insect Safari"

Don Ehlen
Naturalist

August 28

"Feathers: Biology and Beauty"

Chris Maynard
Artist

Additional Notes

On lecture nights, the Refuge Visitor Center and The Nature Shop will be open until 7pm and again after the lecture.
Thanks to the Friends of Nisqually NWR for their support of the Summer Lecture Series and to the Refuge Volunteers who work to produce the series. You, too, can support Refuge education programs by becoming a Friend of the Refuge.

Join today at: friendsofnisquallynwr.org

These free lectures start at 7pm (doors open at 6pm) at Nisqually National Wildlife Refuge, Visitor Center, (360) 753-9467